A Quick Introduction:

Indian Muslim Welfare Association (IMWA) was founded in the year 1994 by a group of elite Indian Muslims residing in Kuwait. The motivation behind the formation of this association was to provide a common platform for the Indian Muslims from various states of India with different cultural backgrounds and different languages to work together for the common cause such as welfare activities.

IMWA is consisted of a body of General Members and an Executive Committee. The General Body elects the Executive Committee of 15 members, of which 6 are Office Bearers. The tenure of the Executive Committee is two years. To achieve its goals and to convene its activities the Executive Committee forms several Operational Cells as stipulated in clause No. 8 of its constitution. Every Operational Cell has its Convener, Co-Convener and adequate number of members. Every individual member is the strength of IMWA when it comes to implementation of its vision.

The policy, program and methodology of implementing its vision have been stipulated in its Constitution. IMWA is a registered association with Embassy of India in Kuwait and maintains good rapport with the Indian mission.

The Mission and the Vision:

To bring cohesive understanding among Muslims living in Kuwait from all over India at one platform to be able to cut through illusions of contemporary nihilism and materialism as per teachings of Islam.

The Objectives of the Association:

- To have an association to initiate and implement effective programs for economic, social, and educational progress of Muslims as well as other communities.
- To inculcate teachings of Islam in order to create an ideal community to foster the feelings of fraternity and brotherhood among all human beings.
- To promote the values of Islam among the fellow citizens and expatriate community by arranging get-togethers, lectures, Da'wah programs etc. through inviting local and international orators and Da'is.
- To promote educational activities by organizing seminars, lectures, counseling of students for career development and creation of awareness on current affairs.
- To organize social get-togethers, artistic and literary activities, competitive and recreational sports.
- To create liaison with government of India for the implementation of educational and welfare programs and cooperate with local authorities.

The Membership:

The membership of IMWA is open to all Indian Muslims residing in Kuwait. The executive committee shall have the exclusive right to accept or reject an application for the membership without assigning any reason.

The membership fee is K.D. 10/- for the year and a person who becomes member of IMWA shall be considered IMWA's full member. All dependent family members of a full member shall be the dependent members. However, if any adult member of the family wishes to become a full member can do so by applying for the membership.
